30 PRETTY AND LOW-PRICE AT AUCTION.

At the request of the executor of the estate, who must convert this property into an income bearing investment, I will WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1897, at 5 o'clock P. M., on the premises, sell THIRTY BEAUTIFUL. LOTS, lying in and around the several corners of Thirty-fourth and S streets. This is just the place to be absolutely sure of getting your money back, with a large percentage of gain, as the county tax on this land is very low, and the proximity to both car lines makes it a convenient location for residences.

This property will not be put up simply to test the market, as it will be sold, if necessary, for one-half of what adjacent property is held at. These lots lie in three different parcels, so that as many as ten can be bought together if desired, and that privilege will be given. Traction cars will take you right to the place. Terms: One-fourth cash, and balance in six, twelve, and eighteen months.
